Visit websites for more information. Many offices are open only a few hours a week or not open at all. You may need to call and leave a message on an answering machine or look for an email contact box on websites. Often, township clerks may handle business from their homes. If you are inquiring about a cemetery sexton, do state the correct person's name, cemetery, and if you need a plot location.

Allegan District Library's Genealogy is Growing!

- Please add your family history to our growing collection of local histories, area records, and local history.
- Your monetary or family history contributions to our genealogy/local history collection are welcome; we are indexing family histories and improving accessibility to our local history collections, adding materials weekly. Please donate copies-not valuable originals - of documents or photos. Please add family stories or memories; these will be treasured by future generations.
- We accept digital attachments, CDs, hard copies, etc. and put loose materials or printed copies into archival page protectors and into 3-ring binders, on shelves accessible to the public all the hours we are open.
- Documents on local history & genealogy shelves in notebooks were acquired since April 2002. We depend upon volunteers and donated materials to help fill our lack of records. Any donations for genealogy go towards purchase of family and local history materials, page protectors, and binders. Volunteers are welcome; we need people to improve our collection, look up records at the courthouse....
- Microfilmed Allegan city newspapers are not yet indexed for obituaries, except for (1856-1889) & 1978-2006. We have an A-Z necrology list for deaths in Allegan Co. 1995 through 2007, over 7000 names.
- Thank you volunteers and Senior workforce trainees—you have accomplished a mountain of work!

Have you written your obituary? We have a helpful handout to guide you. Avoid embarrassing errors and slights, misspelled names, and wrong information; write how you want to be remembered. Everyone dies, but some are remembered better than others by their obituaries.

MI residents have free access to Heritage Quest through the Library of Michigan and our webpage. Allegan D. L. patrons have in-library access to Ancestry Library Edition. Register at the circulation desk for our genealogy computer. Limit one hour if others are waiting. Printing is 15 cents a page.

For maps showing present-day township roads and land divisions, go to www.allegancounty.org, the Allegan County home page, and click on search parcel records, then click on tax map search and on a township map.
